

Table 4.1 Transport Mechanisms

The table below compares the main ways substances cross the membrane.

Mechanism	Energy needed	Example
Simple diffusion	No	Oxygen
Facilitated diffusion	No	Glucose
Active transport	Yes (ATP)	Sodium ions
Endocytosis	Yes	Large particles

Active transport is the only mechanism in the table that moves substances against their gradient.